Adventures and Advantages

“Because of this internship I am not only more skilled at handling birds of prey, but also more confident in my career aspiration to become a veterinarian.”

Elisabeth Fox,
biology intern,
Chesapeake Bay
Environmental Center, Grasonville

“My faculty adviser worked with my internship coordinator to find a way I could get credit for my internship. They were always there for me — even when I was on my internship at Disney!”

*A.J. Falcon
Jr.,* theater intern, Disney
World College
Program, Florida

“An internship in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics is a great way to explore choices and become innovative in your career.”

Danielle Strand, AACC Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics engaged learning coordinator

“The information my faculty adviser provided gave me an idea of what to expect when

Benny Davis, intern, Crosby Marketing Communications Inc., Annapolis

working in the industry. My faculty adviser was like a cheerleader, a coach and a teammate — all in one package.”

“An internship gives you the first-hand experience necessary for your professional field. You get to learn a lot of ‘real-world’ skills that you can add to what you did in the classroom.”

Remi Silva, political science intern, Maryland General Assembly and the White House Office of Correspondence

“Through her internship, Jennifer Hollenstein grew and matured, and she became a valued restaurant professional.”

Debbie Harris, manager, Café Hon, Baltimore

“Part of what makes the internship experience so great is that you participate in class and build a camaraderie with students and instructors, and then on the job you get real life experience in a particular field. In the transportation and logistics industry, it is important to have field experience.”

Cheryl Kitzmiller, business intern, Kuehne + Nagle, Glen Burnie

“Mojo helped me to understand and use various Web development skills that I had learned in my classes at AACC. Those skills and knowledge helped motivate me to further my career.”

Shiva Sharma, computer science intern, Mojo
Web Solutions, Pasadena

“The AACC internship experience is a prime example of engaged learning that grooms students to be among the best-prepared citizens and workers of the world.”

Tony Teano, internship program coordinator, AACC
