

SURVEY
NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION—ONLINE
PLEASE PRINT, COMPLETE AND RETURN

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Student Datatel ID/
Date of Birth: _____ E-mail Address: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Answers to survey questions are found in the “No One Told Me Book” Orientation Guide for New Students and other documents available at the Orientation Web site at www.aacc.edu/orientation/online. After reading the documents, print, complete and return this survey to:

Office of the Assistant Dean for Student Development and Success
Anne Arundel Community College
101 College Parkway, SUN 201
Arnold, MD 21012

Answering and submitting this survey demonstrates that you completed Orientation online. If you have questions, e-mail orientation@aacc.edu or call the Orientation line at 410-777-2888.

1. During the Drop/Add period (the first few days of class) students can make changes to their class schedules in person at the Records and Registration Office; by using the STARS touch tone telephone system; or online via MyAACC. According to the current “No One Told Me Book” Orientation Guide for New Students what is the final current term date to drop a 15-week course with a full refund?
The current term date to drop a 15-week course with a full refund is: _____
2. Academic advisors assist students in deciding which courses to take, although students are responsible for actually creating their schedules. To find out which courses are being offered in a given term, and the times and days each class meets, students should consult the:
 - A. College Catalog
 - B. Schedule of Classes
 - C. View Book
 - D. None of the above
3. Students are encouraged to keep track of their academic progress by checking off courses as they complete them or evaluating their program progress via:
 - A. MyAACC’s Program Evaluation
 - B. The Course Planning Wizard
 - C. The Educational Plan
 - D. The Registration form

4. To find out the programs of study (majors) offered at AACC and the specific courses required to earn each degree, a student should consult the:
 - A. College Catalog
 - B. Schedule of Classes
 - C. View Book
 - D. None of the above

5. AACC has a terrific Web site that saves students time and that is also used to communicate with students via their student e-mail. Students are encouraged to check their student e-mail daily, and if students need to check their e-mail, change a class, print out a copy of their schedule, or look up a grade, students should log on to:
 - A. <http://myaacc.aacc.edu>
 - B. www.onlineservices.aacc.edu
 - C. www.aacc.edu/advising
 - D. www.helpme.aacc.com

6. Sometimes students will take a course that proves to be exceptionally difficult. During the term, if a student evaluates their standing in a course by reviewing past grades, and after consulting with the course professor decides it would be in their best interest to withdraw to avoid a poor course grade, they may opt to withdraw. In the "No One Told Me Book" Orientation Guide for New Students, the last date to withdraw from a 15-week course is listed under:
 - A. Dates to Remember
 - B. What can you do and when?
 - C. None of the above
 - D. Deadlines for students

7. If a student needs to make a payment to AACC, which of the following are accepted payment options?
 - A. Cash
 - B. MOST
 - C. Check
 - D. Credit card
 - E. All of the above are accepted payment options

8. AACC offers many services to help students make an educational plan. If a student needs help choosing a major, planning a transfer, or dealing with personal issues, they should contact the:
 - A. Student Financial Services office
 - B. Academic Support Center
 - C. Counseling, Advising and Retention Services
 - D. Human Resources office

9. Often, busy people want to attend college, but find their personal schedules limit their ability to travel to campus. What types of courses could students register for to avoid commuting to campus or to a college

site each week? Check all that apply:

- A. Online courses
- B. Telecourses
- C. Hybrid course
- D. All of the above

10. Students can order books online and avoid bookstore lines. The Bookstore's Web address is:

- A. www.books.org
- B. www.savings.net
- C. www.aaccbooks.com
- D. www.aaccstore.gov

11. (Select the best answer). AACC encourages students to get involved in college life and there are approximately _____ AACC clubs and organizations in which students can participate. Go ahead make a difference—get involved!

- A. 500
- B. more than 70
- C. less than 40
- D. 1000

12. Textbooks and course materials can be very costly. Buying used textbooks is a great way to save money as used books are typically:

- A. Offered on a daily basis throughout each term
- B. Sold at Saturday flea markets sponsored by the college throughout the year
- C. Offered in the Bookstore during specific times of the year
- D. Sold directly from student to student

13. The relationship between class attendance and academic success has been documented, however, students should consult the course syllabus to find their professors' specific attendance policy. Students should always contact the professor in advance of missing a class, but if a student misses an in-class test and the professor agrees to let the student make up the test, the student would most likely take the make-up examination in the:

- A. Division office
- B. Academic Support Center – Testing Center
- C. Counseling Center
- D. DRGN Building

14. If a student needs help in a course, they should call the Academic Support Center – Tutoring office. The Academic Support Center – Tutoring office offers many forms of FREE tutoring including (circle all that apply):

- A. Peer tutoring
- B. Professional tutoring for a fee
- C. Online tutoring (Smart Thinking)
- D. Individual and small group tutoring

15. E₂ Campus refers to:

- A. A campus text messaging system that instantly provides an emergency text message to a students' cell phone
- B. A scientific equation
- C. A student club
- D. The virtual campus

16. Students are expected to adhere to a number of college policies related to appropriate behavior, computer use, honesty, etc. The policy that requires students to know and understand the consequences for cheating, fabricating, plagiarizing, facilitating another in academic dishonesty, and committing other offenses related to academic dishonesty is entitled:

- A. The Student Code of Conduct
- B. The Academic Integrity policy
- C. The commuter policy
- D. The refund policy

17. The policy that supports Maryland Article 26-101 states that it is against the law to disrupt a class or a college event, and includes the preamble: "Faculty, staff and students of Anne Arundel Community College are responsible for creating and maintaining an environment that is conducive for the pursuit of learning and the development of students as scholars and citizens. Accordingly, college regulations are necessary to safeguard the freedom of each student to learn without undue interference by others. To this end, the following policy is promulgated: All students while engaged in college activities shall comply with all college policies and procedures. Students shall conduct themselves in accordance with accepted standards of behavior, respect the rights of others, refrain from conduct or activity which obstructs the work of the college and is damaging to the welfare of the college community or the college." The policy being referred to is:

- A. The Student Code of Conduct
- B. The Academic Integrity policy
- C. The commuter policy
- D. The refund policy