

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE (FYE) 2010 PILOT

Learn how to be a successful first-time college student! If you are a first-generation college student or you need to build a foundation for success in college-level classes, FYE will provide you a supportive and caring environment to enhance your career, social and academic skills.

All students will:

- ▶ Attend FYE orientation session
- ▶ Enroll in designated sections of "Student Success" (ACA 100) to enhance academic support skill, note taking, strengthening memory and time management
- ▶ Participate in FYE faculty-led lab sessions, weekly tutoring and study groups
- ▶ Enjoy ongoing intrusive advising and monitoring of progress

Benefits:

- ▶ Make strong connections and communications with students in your cohort, peer mentors, faculty, advisers and others who support you
- ▶ Receive structured support for your college success
- ▶ Assistance in identifying and overcoming barriers to your success
- ▶ Introduction to campus resources and services that will enable you to succeed

What must you do to join?

- ▶ Complete an application to the college
- ▶ Take the Accuplacer Assessment and the Noel Levitz College Student Inventory
- ▶ Complete FYE application
- ▶ Schedule an interview with FYE representative
- ▶ Register for courses and enroll in FYE section of ACA 100
- ▶ Attend new student orientation
