ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
BEWTEEN
ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY POLICE ACADEMY PROGRAM GRADUATES
AND
ANNE ARUNDEL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

This Articulation Agreement (this 'Agreement') is entered into this 29th day of July, 2015, between Anne Arundel Community College ('AACC'), accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education and a community college in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, and the Anne Arundel County Police Department ('AACPD') which offers police certification through the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commission. The parties hereto agree to offer an articulated program pathway leading to the award of an Associate of Applied Science Degree (A.A.S.) in Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, Police Academy Option to be provided by AACC for AACPD students who have been certified through the Anne Arundel County Police Academy. The parties further agree that students certified from the Anne Arundel County Police Academy will be allowed to transfer core classes to AACC for purposes of completing their A.A.S. degree.

This agreement allows every certified graduate of the Anne Arundel County Police Academy Program the opportunity to receive up to 26 credits toward the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, Police Academy Option A.A.S. degree at Anne Arundel Community College, contingent on the student's academic requirements.

1. Students interested in pursuing an A.A.S. degree in Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, Police Academy Option, may complete courses specific to the AACC Police Academy core through the Anne Arundel County Police Department Academy.
2. Students certified through the Anne Arundel County Police Department Academy may be awarded an A.A.S. degree in Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, Police Academy Option from AACC upon completion of the AACC program requirements and general education requirements. A minimum of fifteen (15) credits must be taken through AACC.
3. Any curriculum modification by either institution must be conveyed within three (3) months of the modification in writing to AACC through the Vice President for Learning at AACC and the Executive Director of Instructional Partnerships, and to the Anne Arundel County Police Department through the Commander of the Anne Arundel County Police Academy.
4. Students must follow all enrollment and graduation procedures in accordance with AACC policy. Current admission procedures for AACC are set forth on Exhibit A incorporated herein and made a part of this Agreement. Current Credit Awards and Program Requirements are set forth in Exhibit B incorporated herein and made a part of this Agreement,
5. This agreement shall become effective upon signatures by officials from both institutions.
6. This agreement may be dissolved upon mutual agreement of the Vice President for learning at AACC and the Police Academy Commander, Anne Arundel County Police Department. Such dissolution will not jeopardize the completion of the program by students then currently enrolled.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Anne Arundel County Police Department and Anne Arundel Community College have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered on the date written above by their duly authorized representatives.
